

Estate Management

Plant fact sheet

Alternanthera 'Little Ruby'

Cultural Hints -

- Full sun to partial shade
- Most soils though keep moist and well drained
- Apply mulch in warmer months
- Propagate by cuttings

Estate Management | T: 9385 5111 | E: estate@unsw.edu.au | www.estate.unsw.edu.au

Angelonia Serenita Pink - Snapdragon

- Full sun
- Most well drained soils. pH 5.5 to 6.2
- Liquid fertilise monthly
- Propagate by cuttings

Begonia semperflorens - Bedding Begonias

- Full sun to semi shade
- Well drained soils rich in organic matter.
- Liquid fertilise monthly in growing season
- Mulch in warmer months

Chillies

- Full sun
- Well drained soils.
- Liquid fertilise monthly in growing season
- Tip prune during growing season
- Prune hard in winter in preparation for spring
- Propagate by seed

Dianthus

Cultural Hints -

- Full sun to light shade
- Any well drained soils with added compost alkaline pH preferred.
- Long term slow release fertiliser
- Water regularly in warmer months

Estate Management | T: 9385 5111 | E: estate@unsw.edu.au | www.estate.unsw.edu.au

Gaura Geyser Pink – Butterfly Bush

- Full sun to light shade
- Any well drained soils with added compost
- Do not fertilise
- Water infrequently but deeply
- Cut back after flowering

Heuchera - Coral Bells

- Sun to shade
- Any well drained soils with added compost
- Do not fertilise
- Regular watering
- Mulch in growing season
- Liquid fertilise weekly during spring/summer

Parsley

- Sun to part shade
- Any well drained soils with added compost
- Do not fertilise
- Regular watering
- Mulch around base of plant
- Liquid fertilise weekly during growth

Salvia

- Full sun
- Any well drained soils with added compost
- Liquid fertilise every one to two weeks
- Water infrequently once established
- Cut back after flowering

Scaevola – Fan flower

- Full sun to light shade
- Any well drained moist soils
- Occasional native fertiliser in warmer months
- Water when dry
- Cut back after flowering

New Guinea Impatiens

Cultural Hints -

- Morning sun to afternoon shade in a sheltered position
- Composted well drained moist soils
- Occasional fertiliser in warmer months
- Water when dry

Estate Management | T: 9385 5111 | E: estate@unsw.edu.au | www.estate.unsw.edu.au